EPISODE 3

The participants face their hairiest challenge yet running a dog spa. Spaw Boutique owner, Eve MacArthur, started a grooming spa for dogs four years ago on nothing but credit cards and her love for animals. Since then, she's built it into a quarter of a million dollar business and cornered Toronto's booming pet care market. Now she's going to hand over her shampoos and brushes to the Redemption team and task them to run a pop-up spa in a downtown Toronto park. The ex-cons must wash and groom 30 dogs and sell $500 worth of Eve's doggie merchandise in one afternoon. However, a crisis breaks out when the water supply fails and the team leader disappears while wearing a furry dog costume. Can these ex-cons prove to Kevin that they can run with the top dogs, or will this challenge wind up in the doghouse?

We made the rotational tools used for the Canadian made rain barrels used as the water supply in this episode.
